STERLING PATRIOTISM.

Public spirit is so rare, and party feeling so acrimonious in Buenos Ayres, that we gladly hail a proof of patriotism and benevolence given by the unchained Credit party, in support of the National Government. General Mitre has not been so lucky in the council as in the field, and our experience of two years' financial administration shows that a screw is loose somewhere. New taxes have been invented, the resources of the country by a rapid and extraordinary increase have given additional revenues, the expenses of the State have been injudiciously diminished in some items, leaving our frontiers insecure, the currency of the country has suffered fearfully from a breach of public faith, and one Minister has succeeded another, only to tell us that his predecessor left the Exchequer on the verge of bankruptcy, and to promise reforms which we have never seen realised. The public is naturally curious, and apt to impute immorality even where such does not exist. We need not, therefore, be surprised to hear of false, at very unfrequent intervals, grumbling about Ministers growing rich, the Treasury growing poor, taxes on the increase, and new loans daily.

It seems the National Government at present somewhat like these lineendrapers who owe our English houses several hundred shillings, and pay 500 deprivated dollars on account. Of course, without money no Government can stand, and while it was quite suspicious, and apt to impute immorality even where such does not exist. We need not, therefore, be surprised to hear of false, at very unfrequent intervals, grumbling about Ministers growing rich, the Treasury growing poor, taxes on the increase, and new loans daily.

It seems the National Government at present somewhat like these lin

Robberies—The 'Nacional' states that the gentleman who was stubbed while standing with his wife at the street-door, Cinco Esquinas, was named Joaquin Costa. The assassin is a soldier; one has been arrested at the Buenos Catholics. A grocery was robbed in the same place, last week. A youth, named Reich, was robbed the other night in the Calle Perquin. The bandit, nicknamed Cristobaldi, and three of his gang, are summoned to trial, but their pecuniary avocations in Flores will scarce prevent their attendance. Why not arrest them?

Valiadolt's Information—The 'Nacion Argentina' informs its readers that yesterday was Saturday. We have heard, by this mail, from most reliable authority (we do not care to give the name of one of her Majesty's Ministers, but we may hint that his name begins with a P) that Christmas-day this year will be on the 25th December.

Steamer Sicilia—The 'Tribuna' mentions that it has seen a letter, written by one of the passengers who left Rio de Janiero by her on the 13th January, and it would appear as though the Sicilia had had a very peck of troubles. On the 21st January, two days after leaving Rio, she broke her rudder, and after having it repaired on the 24th February, she broke it again four days afterwards. She proceeded under sail to San Vicente. During the voyage, a young Portuguese passenger died, and the other passengers were scantily fitted with hunger, as the steamer was anything but well provided with provisions. Clyde vessels have, of late, acquired all over the world a most unenviable renown for shabby treatment of passengers, and at this rate the Sicilia is not very likely to restore them in the good graces of the public.

Sin ios Tintos—The 'Ferro Carril' of Rosario states that by the merest accident it has discovered a post in the colony of Esperanza. The shipping party is a carpenter called M. Jacquin, who, says the 'Ferro Carril,' lives all alone in a miserable slightly, in which shavings and paper are all piled up together in such confusion as you might expect from 'one who mixes the liquors of this world with the waters of Helicon (which is the Swivelerian for 'he swipes.') He has forwarded some specimens of his music to the 'Ferro Carril,' but owing to the following fortunately lost in the Post-office, we are saved the infliction of reading the rotten trash.

Rosario—We have received the Rosario newspapers, but they do not contain one line of news either from that city itself or from the Pacific. The rains they have had seem to have washed all the life out of the good folks, and left them no spirit to take interest seven in elections.

ON CHARGE.

April 16th, 1-64.

The Bolsa was not much crowded to-day, and little business done. The National loan, of course, formed a topic of conversation, and some attributed to this the dreadful lull in affairs, while others ascribed the happy effect to the recent large importation of specie. Probably both causes were at work, although it is quite possible the fall was a broker's manœuvre, for these gentlemen must keep the ball rolling, and thimble-riggers always hide the pea the better to deceive bumkins. Certain it is that from 29 5 paiacones tumbled to 28 85.

Curling's Smoking Effervescent Citrate of Magnesia,

An agreeable cooling Saline Draught, Antacid and mild Aperient, preferable to any other Saline as a Febrifuge.

When the body is in a heated or feverish condition this preparation will be found most grateful, as it tends to produce a slight moisture on the skin, and generally cool the system.

Dose three times a day.

Place in a dry tumbler a measureful of the powder, add sweetbiels; add spring water, stir briskly, and drink during effervescency. As an Aperient, the draught should be repeated within half an hour, and the effect is more certain if taken before breakfast.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA & C.

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated as a great support to the commerce of the River Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city a most profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artisans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date,

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the public by the benefits derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and all ays directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood,

Buenos Ayres September 19th 1869.

p. p. Mauá & Co.

WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards

2d. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p$] per annum which is liquidated every six months

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. Once the amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

ENGLISH GRAMMAR SCHOOL,

CALLE LARGA DE BARRACAS

Directo—Mr. Pomeroy, of the London University College.

This Establishment, which from its foundation has been patronised by the principal British families of Buenos Ayres, is an exact reproduction of an English School, where a sound commercial education is combined with the acquisition of the French and Spanish languages as imparted in the best schools of Europe. The same system as in all first class European institutions of the kind.

An ever-watchful and constant supervision, and a strict maintenance of order and propriety, are a sufficient guarantee of the success and behaviour of the pupils are carefully attended to.

The different branches taught in the English Grammar School comprise the English, French and Spanish languages, History, Geography, Arithmetic, and Book-keeping in full, Writing, and Reading, Religious Instruction, Extra branches, such as Latin, Mathematics, German, Music and Drawing are also taught by special masters.

The situation of the English Grammar School, in one of the most delightful Quintas of the Calle Larga of Barracas, at the very gates of the city, is one of the most healthful and picturesque of the environs of Buenos Ayres.
